Plan Extensive Land Takings In Village This Week

Duff Sees Steady Growth

Town Manager Thomas E. Duff, expressing satisfaction with the community's progress in 1960, foresees a year of planned and steady growth in 1961.

In a year-end look into the future, Duff predicted that industrial expansion will be forthcoming, in proportion to the rest of the community, and in areas set aside specially for the purpose.

One of the major goals of the manager this year is the acquisition of more land for municipal purposes - land for buildings that will be needed in the future, and for recreational areas for the town's citizens. Additional funds will be sought in the 1961 budget for this purpose.

The town will also move steadily forward in its water and sewer programs, Duff stated. For several years there have been funds appro-

Town Rallies To Aid Legros Family, Contributions Sought For Fund

Public desire to help the Joseph Legros family, whose Boston rd. home and possessions were destroyed by fire Monday afternoon, reached record proportions Wednesday.

Neighbors and friends, anxious to help the stricken family, have started a fund drive for their assistance.

And William R. Hickey of the Bay State Merchants National Bank has agreed to receive contributions at the Main st. branch office. Contributions should be addressed to "The Joseph Legros Fund", and sent to Mr. Hickey at the bank.

Mrs. Irene Gaudet of Rattlesnake Hill rd. and Roger Christy, a neighbor of the Legros, began the fund idea, and soon found that many warm hearted townspeople are anxious to help. The Andover Townsman will record the names of contributors in future issues.

A heartbreaking tragedy brought an end to Christmas for a Boston rd. family Monday - fire destroyed their home, its furnishings, and all the precious things that five children held dear from Santa's visit the day before.

Shortly after 2 p.m. Monday, flames raced through the one-story house, completely gutting the interior. Luckily the family was away, avoiding any possibility of injury or death.

But when Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Legros, their five children, and their grandmother returned two hours later, they broke into tears at the sight of the rubble that had been home.

Neighbors took the family in for the night. And a vast array of civic, charitable and personal efforts to help the stricken family began.

The Salvation Army provided clothing Tuesday, and the Andover Chapter, American Red Cross, ar-

Feb. 6 is the final date, at 4:30 p.m., for filing papers with the town clerk.

Jan. 20 at 4:30 is the closing of the town warrant - all articles have to be in the hands of the town clerk by that time.

Registrations will take place at the following times:

Jan. 30 - town hall, precinct one, 7-9.

Feb. 1 - Sacred Heart School, precinct three, 7-9.

Feb. 3 - Grange Hall, precinct four, 7-9.

Town Loses Tax Revenue

The state will seize Shawsheen Village land today or Friday for Route 495, as it crosses North Main st. and continues into Lawrence and North Andover.

The long-awaited action comes in the final days of 1960, and will finally end the speculation about the road's route through this heavily-populated area of the town.

A spokesman for the state Department of Public Works said the takings will be filed for a total length of 1.9 miles, including the full interchange at North Main st.

Property west of Route 28 will be affected in the Corbett st. area, and easterly into Lawrence.

However, still another section of the federal highway, westerly of the current section, remains to be laid out.

Over $1,000,000 in taxable property is being taken from the town's rolls, according to Assessor Bernard Magane.

He said the total value of the land taken for this high-way will reach at least the million level, meaning about 20-30 cents on the tax rate.

Magane pointed out that real estate taxes can not be collected

New Publication At Merrimack College

Electrical Engineering student Thomas Kiely is slated to edit the new engineering publication at Merrimack College.

The February issue will contain a section on the Merrimack engineering alumni, in addition to topics of interest to the Electrical Engineers currently at Merrimack. For example, the first issue will contain an item on a phase of the revitalized engineering program and cover in detail the advantages to the student of the changes made.

The creation of the publication was the students' idea and reflects the broad type of engineering education a student receives at Merrimack. Not only is he competent in his specialty, but he also has the ability to organize, to express his ideas in written form, and to carry on all the tasks essential to the successful completion of the task.

The student body is small enough that the individual engineer can take an active part in the student activities such as this and personally know most of the students in his class. At the same time it is large enough to attract students from a number of other states and countries. This is but one of the many advantages offered by a relatively small college such as Merrimack.

Christopher Faris was inducted into the troop as a tenderfoot scout; William Caffrey and James Barrett became second class; William Barrett was presented merit badges in Stamp Collecting and Firemanship; and Matt Hall earned a merit badge for Citizenship in the Home.

In addition to these individual awards, four patrols have won coup feathers for their participation in various troop activities. As part of the troop program 25 scouts and five leaders took an advancement hike to a campsite several miles northwest of Haggart's Pond.

Adult and junior leaders who accompanied the troop included John B. McAllister, scoutmaster; William Willits Sr., assistant scoutmaster; Paul S. Martellucci, committee chairman; George Curry, institutional representative; James Lowe Sr., committeeman; William McCarthy, junior assistant scoutmaster; and William Willits Jr., senior patrol leader. The following scouts made the hike: James Barrett, William Barrett, Augustine Caffrey, John Corey, David Curry, Thomas Deacon, James Devine, John Deyermund, Thomas Duff, Christopher Faris, Mathew Hall, Richard Herrick, Ronald Kearn, Stephen Kearn, James Lowe, Jr., Charles Lundergan, Richard Lynch, Paul Martellucci Jr., Robert Richards, John Shea, Joseph Sweeney, Paul Thomas and Kenneth White.

Along the route of march, which covered more than 10 miles, hiking safety was stressed. At the campsite, patrol areas were assigned and each scout was provided the opportunity to pass at least two of his first or second class requirements.

Examinations in scoutcraft skills included Hike Preparation, the Second Class Hike, Firebuilding, First and Second Class Cooking, and Trailing. Special instruction was also provided in Axeman'ship, Firebuilding, and Trailmarking Techniques. This training was conducted by Jr. Assistant Scoutmaster McCarthy, Senior Patrol Leader Willits, and First Class Scouts Sweeney, White, Lynch, Hall and Barrett.

30 Species Seen During Census

Only thirty species of birds were recorded by 21 birders in the 14th annual Greater Andover Christmas bird count.

The cold weather and snow preceding week, resulting in frozen ponds and lakes and a consequent scarcity of waterfowl, made conditions unfavorable for observation. An unusually large proportion of smaller land birds were seen. Two new species brought the total number of species recorded in 14 censuses to 85. Additions were a light-colored, rough-legged hawk seen by Waters Kellogg of Andover in Exford; and a barred owl recorded by Oscar M. Root of Andover at Brooks School.

Observers were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Dunbar Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gierach, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson, Mrs. Waters Kellogg, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kent, Danny Kent, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kimball, the Rev. Mrs. J. Edison Pike, Miss Pike, Albert R. Retelle, Arthur Reynolds, George K. Brown, Mrs. Lester M. Thompson, Mrs. Henry Tyer, all of Andover, and Oscar M. Root of North Andover.

30 Species Seen During Census

Only thirty species of birds, a drop of 16 from the record set in 1959, were recorded by 21 birders on the 14th annual Greater Lawrence Christmas bird count on Dec.
19.

The cold weather and snow of the preceding week, resulting in frozen ponds and lakes and a consequent scarcity of waterfowl, made conditions unfavorable for observation.

An unusually large proportion of smaller land birds were seen at feeders. Two new species brought the total number of species recorded in 14 censuses to 85. The additions were a light-phased rough-legged hawk seen by Mrs.
Waters Kellogg of Andover in West
Boxford; and a barred owl recorded by Oscar M. Root of North Andover at Brooks School.

Observers were Mr. and Mrs.
Douglas Dunbar Sr., Mr. and Mrs.
Walter Gierach, Mr. and Mrs.
Fred Johnson, Mrs. Waters Kellogg, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard S.
Kent, Danny Kent, Mr. and Mrs.
John W. Kimball, the Rev. and Mrs. J. Edison Pike, Miss Betsy
Pike, Albert R. Retelle, Mrs.
Arthur Reynolds, George K. Sanborn, Mrs. Lester M. Thompson,
Mrs. Henry Tyer, all of Andover and Oscar M. Root of North Andover.

Dear friends,

There is a natural tendency on the part of a bereaved family to express high tribute to the deceased. To urge an expensive selection, beyond the family's ability to pay, is certainly not a reputable practice.

We feel that the family should be permitted to make its own selection, guided by such information and suggestion as the funeral director may be able to offer. We avoid any possibility of "over-selling".

Respectfully,

Increase Salary For Physician

The salary of the school physician, Dr. John J. McArdle Jr., has been increased in the new budget from $1,100 to $1,500, by vote of the School Committee.

The item will be placed in the budget now being prepared for adoption at town meeting.

Members of the Committee agreed that the physician's salary has not been increased for several years.

Among the doctor's duties will be the regular examination of students, and the duties with the athletic department and varsity teams.

In addition, the school physician will also give physical examinations to all the bus drivers, every two years, in an attempt to forestall sudden illnesses that reportedly have disabled drivers in other communities. Although it has not happened here, there have occasionally been reports that drivers have suffered heart attacks while their vehicles have been in operation.

Dr. Milton J. Meyers, chairman of the Committee, suggested that the physical examinations be given each two years.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

The Greatest Gift

Many children received bicycles for Christmas — and this certainly is a fine present.

But an even finer one — a present that may mean even more to the child — can be given throughout the year. And that is proper instruction on the use of the gift.

Parents who have given their children bikes, but who fail to be certain that they use them properly, may be unwittingly creating great sorrow for their families. For in recent years there has been an increasing number of accidents involving bicycles and automobiles.

In many cases, as safety officials have pointed out, the youngsters riding the bikes just don't know about ordinary safety precautions; they seem unaware of their responsibilities when riding their bikes on the roads.

If tragedy is to be avoided, every child who rides a bike should be taught all the requirements that go with enjoying this privilege. They should learn about their responsibility to others.

This is a far more important gift — one that can preserve a life; one that may avoid dreadful accidents and broken bodies.

We urge all of you, who have children and bicycles, to make certain that the bikes will be used properly, and with respect for others.

Let's Continue Helping

It is heartwarming to see how quickly and thoughtfully so many persons have come to the assistance of the Legros family, whose home was destroyed Christmas Day.

In addition to the efforts of the Red Cross, countless residents of the town have offered their personal aid, in whatever way it can best be given. The Board of Trade has also offered to help where possible.

This type of reaction to an emergency situation deserves recognition. For it is good to be reminded occasionally that the world is filled with people who are essentially kind and generous; people who will take time out from their own activities to help someone else.

All too frequently we read, and hear about the many selfish things that people do. Let's remember, when we're tempted to be too cynical, that most people just need the opportunity to be unselfish and willing to help those who have been suddenly hit with an overwhelming misfortune.

Thank You, One And All

In this last issue of 1960, it is appropriate that we take this opportunity to publicly thank all those who have been of such great assistance during the year.

There are many organizations, of varied purposes, in the community — and most have someone specially assigned to notifying this newspaper about activities of the group. This usually is the only way a newspaper can keep abreast of all the news concerning so many organizations.

To all of these publicity persons, then, we say a warm "thank you".

And we look forward to the new year with the confident knowledge that we can enjoy the same friendly cooperation that has been evident during 1960.

To all: Happy New Year.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — December, 1910

James Dick, whose home is on Cuba st., who is at present located in Des Moines, Iowa, is to leave that city for the West Coast after Jan. 1.

William Sutcliffe of Boston was in town on Christmas Day.

Mrs. Pearl Ralph, who is teaching in South Royalston, Vt., spent Christmas in town with her parents.

James Abbott, son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Abbott of Andover st., who has been engaged for the past three years in the sugar refining business in California, is renewing acquaintances in a two-week visit to town.

Charles G. Willard of New-castle, Me., has been appointed sub-master of Punchard School.

Work of enlarging the quarters at the Andover Savings Bank has been going on for the past few weeks. Officials are looking forward eagerly to an early opening of the new rooms.

25 Years Ago — December, 1935

The town may have held its last town meeting in the town house. PWA officials think they can have the new auditorium ready for use next March, although it may not be quite finished.

Forecasts of better economic conditions for 1936 were forecast by officials, after a survey of local unemployment conditions. Dr. J. J. Daly, head of the welfare department, said there are fewer unemployed now than a year ago at this time.

An elderly woman was found in West Andover Christmas afternoon, lying half frozen beside the road. She had fallen at the corner of Haggert's Pond rd. and Woodhill rd. Luckily, her fall carried her onto the roadway, where a passing motorist eventually saw her.

A local man had only a few scratches to show for a bad automobile accident Sunday afternoon on Argilla rd. His car climbed an embankment, returned to the road and overturned. It was demolished.

Handling the ball in the penalty area was suicidal for the Lawrence soccer team last Sunday, since McGrath then booted in the penalty kick to score the only point of the game. The victory brought Andover into a second place tie in the Merrimack Valley District League.

10 Years Ago — December, 1950

The disaster organization of the Red Cross has appealed to all Andover residents to register any facilities they may have to help care for refugees, in case of disaster.

During the year, as seen through Townsman headlines, some of the most important events in the community included: town meeting voted $1,200,000 for two elementary schools; for the first time, town meeting voted by secret ballot; telephone subscribers overwhelmingly approved a new service area, eliminating the toll charges to and from Lawrence; the Veterans Housing project opened; automatic gates were installed in Ballardvale at the railroad crossing; and the town saw a record-breaking spurt in building construction.

The next ground observer test will be a two-day affair, Feb. 10-11. Andover has enough volunteers to conduct the test, but many more would be needed if the service had to be used on a 24-hour basis.

Punchard's basketball team trounced Johnson of North Andover, 67-33, in the first game of the year, then went on to beat Stoneham, 69-43.

Winter Sports

If winter means a season for fun and outdoor sports, the Memorial Hall Library suggests that you look over the book stock to find new ways to improve your talents. There are books on ice skating, skiing, hockey, and with them books on easy entertaining for your group after a cold day outside.

Among The New Books

Now that evenings are longer and colder, good books are more in demand than ever. Here are a few recently added to the Memorial Hall Library. Now I Remember, Burgess — a delightful autobiography of the man who has made

May Give Credit For Extra Work

The School Committee has approved $400 for the budget in case it decides at a later date to give increments to teachers having 30 credit hours beyond the bachelor's degree, but who do not have a master's degree.

In a brief discussion at the last meeting, members of the Committee recalled that credit has previously been given to teachers in this category, during the year that financial credit also was given to those with master's degrees.

The Committee has recently approved a $300 increment for those holding the master's degree.

Although a decision was not reached, Chairman Milton J. Meyers said he believes the salary study committee should go over the subject before it is decided. He explained that, in his opinion, the master's degree is worthy of greater consideration than the credit hours alone.

Miss Lucille Sherry, R.N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sherry of Andover st., is on the nursing staff at Virginia Mason Hospital, Seattle, Wash.

MRS. PETER M. ARNOLD

(Lydick)

ARNOLD - DEHART

The West Parish Church was the setting for the 3 o'clock wedding ceremony, Saturday, Dec. 24, of the marriage of Miss Doris Ann DeHart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William K. DeHart, 21 Arthur rd., to Peter M. Arnold, son of Mrs. B. John Straker of Westport and Mason F. Arnold, 103 Elm st. The Rev. Howard Andrews, pastor of the West Parish Church, officiated before an altar adorned with Christmas greens and poinsettias.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Peau de Sole styled with sabrina neckline, fitted bodice, full length skirt ending in chapel train, trimmed with Alencon lace with re-embroidered seed pearls. Her silk veil of illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white poinsettias and white roses.

The bride's attendants were Miss Linda Low, as maid of honor; Miss Carol A. Gesing, Miss Janet Lord, Miss Donna Anderson and Miss Eleanor Finnerty, as bridesmaids, all of Andover. They all wore white brocaded sheath gowns with bolero jackets, accented by bequined flowers. Their hats were a circular crown of rose petals of Arthur rd. while her husband is stationed out of the States.

GLENDINNING - JACKSON

At a nuptial Eucharistic service in the Calvary Episcopal Church, Danvers, Saturday afternoon, Dec. 17, at 4 o'clock, Miss Priscilla Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Randall Jackson, 36 Park st., Danvers, became the bride of David Cross Glendinning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Glendinning, 33 High st. The Rev. Robert Zimmerman, rector, officiated, assisted by the Rev. Allan W. Clark, rector emeritus.

The church organist played the nuptial music and a group of 10 students at the Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, served as the choir at the impressive service. Red carnations and holly decorated the church.

Miss Ann Jackson was maid of honor for her sister and the bridesmaids were Miss Susan Jackson of Danvers, also a sister of the bride; Miss Judith Boardman of Danvers; Miss Amy Glendinning of Andover, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. David Dunn of Granby, Conn.

Peter Miller was best man and the ushers were classmates of the bridegroom at the Episcopal Theological School, Carl N. Kunz Jr. of Philadelphia, Pa., Stephen H. Knight, David Scott and Benjamin T. Winsor of Cambridge.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white taffeta designed with a portrait neckline and cummerbund of Alencon lace and a full skirt forming in a chapel train. Her veil of illusion was appliqued with matching Alencon lace and attached to a flat bow headpiece. She carried orchids and variegated ivy in a cascade bouquet.

Her attendants wore emerald green peau de sole with matching halo hats and accessories and carried red carnations and holly in cascade arrangements.

After a reception in Hamilton Hall, Salem, the couple left for Bermuda. They will reside at the Episcopal Theological School, 99 Brattle st., Cambridge, where Mr. Glendinning is a senior. He prepared at Phillips Academy, for Dartmouth College.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Connecticut and is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

LAND TAKINGS IN VILLAGE THIS WEEK

next year on property taken prior to the end of the current year. He recalled that one citizen, speaking at town meeting about a year ago, said something that implied that the state reimbursed the town for taxes - and asserted that there is no truth to the statement. Magane indicated that the state does not reimburse the town at all.

It is customary, however, that most residents of a community remain in that town, in some location. Thus, the assessors anticipate that eventually many residents affected by the highway will purchase property elsewhere in Andover.

To the extent that this happens total assessed values will be increased.

At least residents of the section in Shawsheen will now be able to plan for the future, whether the decision is to remain in the town or move away.

There have been months, even years, of speculation concerning the new highway and its exact route through Shawsheen. Property owners have been unable to sell land or houses, and many have been in doubt as to how much could be spent on general maintenance, if the houses were to be taken immediately.

Local Boys Home From Emerson

Three Andover boys are home for the holidays, after participating in the Christmas and term-end activities at Emerson School, Exeter, N. H., where they are students.

John M. McNally, son of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph T. McNally, 13 Alden rd., was a member of the cast for the school Christmas play, "A Child Is Born", by Stephen Vincent Benet. John also was awarded a letter in junior varsity football Dec. 16.

Richard R. Reader, son of Mr.

and Mrs. Ronald R. Reader, 70 Porter rd., was awarded a junior varsity football letter at the school's annual term banquet Dec. 16, and also received the Sportsmanship Trophy.

Thomas R. Torrissi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore Torrissi, 183 Holt rd., also received a letter for junior varsity football.

Hill School, Pottstown, Pa.; The Lawrenceville School, Lawrenceville, N. J.; The Mt. Hermon School, East Northfield; St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H.; The Choate School, Wallingford, Conn.; The Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, N. H.

Headmaster John M. Kemper of Phillips Academy said "This unmistakable evidence, given by The Donner Foundation, of high value set upon top-flight teaching will add great strength and power to the forces working to improve American education on all fronts."

Said Robert A. Maes, president of The Foundation, "We hope that the Donner Teaching Endowments will become an example and a goal for all other schools. In the opinion of the Trustees of the Foundation, these top salaries established in these fifteen schools will encourage raising of salaries in most other secondary schools. We feel that new standards are being set which should be felt throughout all secondary education."

Maes explained, "The appointee shall be a full time faculty member, spending a major portion of his time teaching as opposed to administrative or other duties."

"This contribution to education is the largest by The Donner Foundation. A year ago similar grants were made to six schools. Indications of the success of the plan caused the Trustees to increase the effort 250 percent this year," commented Mr. Maes.

YWCA CLASSES WILL RESUME

will be for beginners only, with Mrs. Eve Glendinning as instructor. Members may paint boxes, trays, small furniture, waste baskets, etc.

Tricks of the Trade is a new course which will stress the finer points of sewing—tailoring, fitting, pockets, etc. There will also be a course in Drapery Making which will be given for two periods.

Another new class will be Child Fitness Through Play, with Dot Christopher as teacher. This will include games and recreational activities to promote physical fitness in children.

Other classes which were offered the first session and will be continued include intermediate and supervised playing of bridge, Badminton, Modern Dance and Trimmings.

Members who enjoyed the painting classes, taught by Mrs. Jane Trumbore, may continue this activity by attending the classes of the North Andover Homemaker's Holiday which will be held Tuesday mornings at the American Legion Hall in that town.

Honored On 25th Anniversary

A very delightful buffet supper party was held last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Haartz of High Plain rd., honoring the Silver Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Roger H. Lewis of Laurel.

During the festivities, the couple was presented a pewter dish and punch bowl set on behalf of those gathered. They included Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Northey, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hall Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hudgins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smyth, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dow, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Pray, Mr. and Mrs. William DeBocq, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Karl Haartz.

priated for these purposes as part of over-all plans for expansion. Financially, the town should be in a stable position. The manager expressed satisfaction with surplus cash, pointing out that the amount now equals last year's.

But to keep the financial base from rocking, he accentuated the need for continued industrial growth in pace with the remainder of the town. A broadened tax base, he stressed, is the only way to meet increasing costs, and the expense of required improvements.

"All town departments have been striving to do better jobs, to become more skilled", Duff stated, "and this in itself is a good reason for an adjustment of wages".

He also explained that labor is competitive, and the town must consider increased wages and salaries paid in other communities, and in local private industry when discussing an increase.

Looking back on 1960, the manager particularly noted the excellent cooperation he has received from all department heads, employees and the Board of Selectmen.

"Everyone has been striving for a common goal", he concluded, "the enhancement of our town."

Interior walls in the house were completely consumed by the fire. Deputy Murnane said the fire apparently did not start anywhere near the Christmas tree or other decorations in the living room.

Affected by the fire were Mr. and Mrs. Legros, Mrs. Mary Peters, and the five children, Gail, 10; Peter, 7; Susan, 5; Joseph, 4; and Michael, 2.

2 Nuns Injured In Car Crash

Two nuns from St. Augustine's School have been hospitalized after receiving identical injuries in an automobile accident in Lawrence.

Sister Marie St. Joseph and Sister Julie David were trapped in a car at the corner of Berkeley st. and Sunset ave. Sunday afternoon, when it turned on its side after being in collision with a taxi. Police and bystanders righted the vehicle, and the nuns were assisted from it by Dr. John J. Lorenz. They suffered broken left collarbones.

The nuns were passengers in a car operated by Paul Hershon, 44 School st. The taxi was operated by Joseph A. Daley, 33 Franklin st., Lawrence.

Hershon's two sons, Peter, 16, and William, seven, were also in the car and were treated for minor injuries by their family physician. Mr. Hershon received treatment at Bon Secours Hospital for head, shoulder and back injuries.

Methuen and Lawrence sent ambulances and cruisers to the scene.

Town Received Extra Money

The town has received an additional $15,100 from corporation excise taxes collected by the state, and another $30,200 from the state income taxes.

Treasurer Anna M. Greeley announced the two receipts.

She said the total 1960 income from the state, under these two categories, is $213,585.52 from the income taxes and $166,581.37 from corporation taxes.

A year ago, the town received slightly less in each category - $211,859 from income taxes and $150,421 from corporation taxes.

The receipts this year exceed the estimates contained in the "cherry sheet", on which the town bases its tax rate in the spring. The document had anticipated that the town would get $174,517 from the income taxes and $151,481 from corporation taxes.

Mothers March In January

The new "March of Dimes" will be held in January, with the traditional "Mothers' March" coming Jan. 26.

Again this year, Bruce Dodd of Summer st. is Andover chairman for the March.

Sponsored by the National Foundation, the March raises funds to meet continuing responsibilities towards polio victims, and for research in the fields of arthritis and birth defects.

Last year, Andover contributed $5,120 to the annual campaign under Mr. Dodd's chairmanship. This year, Mr. Dodd anticipates that a full complement of precinct chairmen and workers will be named shortly.

Met Last Night On Teen Center

A Committee of young people and adults - all with the single goal of establishing a teen-age center in Andover - met last night at the Central School auditorium.

The session last night was called to discuss the methods of accomplishing the goal. Committees have been established to work on finances, by-laws, location and other details of the center.

Among the adults expressing interest in the project are James M. Adeline Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, the Rev. J. Allen Ford, Donald Bassett, Mr. and Mrs. Guy B. Howe Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Neil, William R. Hickey and Mrs. Percy Beasley, Mr. and Mrs. Cole and Peter Soderberg, among people serving on various committees include Malcolm Sarason, Judy Parshly, Bob Young, Roversi, Doug Howe Jr., F. L.
